Indemnification

No refunds after your application is approved.

By signing this application, the Vendor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Callicoon Business Association, Inc., and its officers, members, employees, agents, representatives, officials, affiliates, and volunteers from any and all claims, actions, losses, liabilities, damages, and costs arising from, attributable to, or incidental to the Vendor's participation in the 2026 Dickens on the Delaware (the "Event"), including the use of property, authorized activities, and related activities associated with the Event. This includes, but is not limited to, property damage, personal injury or death, and any liens claimed or asserted for labor, materials, or services furnished to the Vendor in connection with the Event. These obligations extend to the activities of the Vendor's employees, agents, representatives, and concessionaires, including event setup, operation, and breakdown. With respect to any suit or claim by anyone, whether under this indemnification provision or otherwise, the Vendor, on behalf of itself and its agents, employees, and representatives, expressly waives any defense that might preclude or limit enforcement of this indemnification provision or recovery of reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in securing compliance with this agreement. The Vendor further agrees to reimburse the Callicoon Business Association, Inc., the Town of Delaware, or other vendors for reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing this agreement against the Vendor.
